D.E.A.R. Family Reading Night

As part of our Read-A-Thon Saint Patrick's is hosting a D.E.A.R. Night. D.E.A.R. stands for "Drop Everything and Read." It is a family-oriented celebration of reading designed to remind families to make reading a priority in their lives. Come dressed in your pajamas for storytelling, family reading time, and a bedtime snack!

WHERE: Saint Patrick's School, Chapel/Library

WHEN: Tuesday, February 28, 2017, 7:00-8:30PM

HOW? Stop whatever it is that you are doing and...just read!

WHY? Because the love of reading is a beautiful, valuable, lifelong habit that everyone should enjoy, every day.

WHAT TO BRING? A dessert or snack to share, your favorite books, and blanket and/or pillow!

WHAT TO WEAR: Pajamas!

All students who attend will earn double reading minutes & receive a Book Fair Buck to use at the April Book Fair!
